Our Pilgrim forefathers did routinely observe thanksgiving, but it was a religious service that included singing and prayer. These Pilgrims were not experienced farmers. It was local Native Americans who introduced them to corn and squash, and who showed them how to fertilize the ground using fish heads. We owe our Thanksgiving holiday to their feast in 1621 which celebrated their first successful harvest.

Public Hearing—Tank proposal for Jakes Creek Trail Residents

The Board of Trustees and the Board of Public Works have been jointly working together to achieve a solution for the tanks that were installed during the beginning of the Jakes Creek Trail Wastewater Project. At this time they believe they have come up with a plan that would be financially beneficial to the Village and the homeowners also. The plan being proposed will have just a connection fee, and will do away with the tank installment plan. We hope all residents will attend so that there is adequate feedback on the situation, and the Boards can then adopt a plan that will be suitable for everyone involved. The Hearing will be held on Monday, November 7th, from 7-8:30 pm. Look forward to seeing everyone there!

POLICE REPORT

Emily Carpenter is now holding the position of Chief of Police. She has already made some advancements, through a government program she was able to acquire at no cost to the village a new hard drive with a flat screen monitor, a 2nd flat screen monitor for the existing computer and a laptop. She has 3 officers now patrolling the point, Officer Adam Buxton, Officer Jeff Brassler, and Officer Derek Zentner; the 4th officer Kyle Prince will be leaving us on Oct 15 and she will be looking to replace him. She has been putting together a program for a Business Safety Partnership to try to educate the businesses more on safety issues. There will be a meeting for the BSP on Nov 15 at the Indian Point Marina. We thank her for all her hard work and look forward to her continued efforts.
